VENUE AND FACILITIES

TRANSPORT: It is strongly recommended that you give yourselves ample time to get to this venue. The roads will be busy and road closures adjacent to the 1st Central County Ground might be in place both before and after the event.

BY CAR: There is no parking at the 1st Central County Ground for this concert.

There is a public car park, Norton Road Car Park (BN3 3BE), located a short walk West of the 1st Central County Ground opposite Hove Town Hall (charges apply between 8am and 8pm). There is on-street parking, although this is very limited due to residents permit parking. For further information please go to: www.brighton-hove.gov.uk/content/parking-and-travel/parking/norton-road-car-park

BY BUS:

The Number 7 bus runs past the North (Cromwell Road) end of the ground with several stops near the ground. This service is the George Street, Hove to Brighton Marina service and serves both Hove and Brighton Rail Stations. This bus runs approximately every 10 minutes.

The 21 & 21A Brighton Marina to Goldstone Valley service stops outside the main entrance to the ground; these are less frequent but do run through the central Hove and Brighton areas.

Several buses stop at Palmeira Square which is just 280m from the ground

For up to date information on these services and for detailed route map information please visit www.buses.co.uk.

CAN I BRING MY OWN FOOD AND DRINK?

Food and drink is not permitted however there are food and drink concessions within the event.
