Sussex Cricket Foundation's Employability Programme

Freelance Tutors Required

The Sussex Cricket Foundation, the charitable arm of Sussex Cricket, is looking to engage with freelance sessional tutors and specialist employability support workers to work on current and future Employability Programmes.

We are looking for people who:

- Have experience in a variety of subject areas, including: employability skills; vocational qualifications (customer service and retail); personal and social development, and life skills.
- Demonstrate empathy, are approachable and friendly
- Have a non-judgemental approach to the client group
- Are specialist employability support workers with experience of supporting those furthest from the labour market into employment. This includes experience of supporting long-term unemployed and those with health support needs

For further information about this opportunity, please send your CV to Vanessa Potter (Head of Education and Health) at vanessa.potter@sussexcricket.co.uk

Application Deadline Date: 5pm on Friday 25 May 2018

Please note that late applications will not be accepted.
